With a film-set that reaches from the marinas of Monte Carlo, to the slums of the oldest city in the world, this is a movie about risk and triumph. Darren and his team of movie makers simply show up wherever the spirit takes them to do whatever the spirit directs. It shows what can be done when we do not try to contain God, but simply give ourselves up to his power and direction. You will see God turn up in the most unexpected places to show people who don't even know Him how much He loves them and wants relationship with them.
